

Dear Fox News:

Juan Williams made outrageous comments on "The Five" (5/13) that "the Zionists can't be trusted" to go after Rashida Tlaib – after Tlaib insulted Holocaust victims and defamed Israel and promoted lies about the Arabs' horrific actions against Jews during and after the Holocaust. Tlaib also seeks Israel's extinction. Williams' comments are antisemitic and unjust and an anathema to anyone who believes in free speech and the rights of minority groups to speak out against those who seek to harm them. It's the Zionist Organization of America's mission to fight on issues of importance to Jews, Zionists and Israel.

What would you do if a Fox commentator said "you can't trust the African-Americans" to speak out against anti-Black racism. Or that "you can't trust the women" to speak out against sexual assaults? The same standard should apply here. Juan Williams must be suspended and must sincerely apologize.
