

ZIONIST ORGANIZATION OF AMERICA
JUSTICE LOUIS D. BRANDEIS AWARD DINNER

SUPERSTAR
GALA JOURNAL

SUNDAY, MARCH 15, 2026 | FLORIDA

It is difficult to overstate the importance of moral clarity in today's political climate. Rarely in our history have we seen such persistent efforts—from the media, on college campuses, and even within our own communities—to blur the line between right and wrong and to overwhelm the good. Yet it is precisely because of people like my dear friend Barbara Feingold, and the other distinguished honorees of ZOA, who possess the conviction and moral clarity to meet this moment, that we will prevail.

I have had the privilege of knowing Barbara for many years, and her unwavering passion and tireless support for Israel are truly extraordinary. She is deeply committed to ensuring that future generations understand the history, resilience, and enduring importance of the Jewish State. I can think of no one more deserving of an award bearing the name of Justice Louis D. Brandeis, whose leadership and legacy—both on and off the bench of the Supreme Court—continue to inspire generations.

Whether through her stewardship as a member of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council, her many philanthropic endeavors, or simply her profound love for the Jewish people around the world, Barbara's impact is unmistakable and lasting. I am exceedingly proud to call her a friend and look forward to standing alongside her in this fight for many years to come.

BRIAN J. MAST
MEMBER OF CONGRESS

Dear Friends at the Zionist Organization of America,

I am honored to congratulate Barbara Feingold on receiving the Justice Louis D. Brandeis Award. This recognition reflects a lifetime of leadership, conviction, and unwavering support for the Jewish community and the State of Israel.

Barbara's work speaks for itself. Through her service with the Republican Jewish Coalition, the Combat Antisemitism Movement, and the Friends of the Israel Defense Forces, she has devoted years to strengthening the bond between the United States and Israel. Her appointment by President Trump to serve on the United States Holocaust Memorial Council is a fitting reflection of that lifelong commitment. Her voice has been a steady force in the fight against antisemitism and in defense of Jewish values. Those efforts matter now more than ever.

Her dedication has also reached far beyond advocacy. Barbara has supported Jewish institutions, helped strengthen communities in both the United States and Israel, and carried forward the promise of "never again" with purpose and resolve. Her leadership reflects a deep commitment to the security of Israel and the future of the Jewish people.

The Zionist Organization of America has a proud history of standing up for Israel and confronting antisemitism wherever it appears. Honoring leaders like Barbara Feingold continues that important tradition. I have been proud to support those same efforts in Congress, including through my work to stand against antisemitism and strengthen support for Jewish students and communities. As a member of the Education and Workforce Committee, I have supported efforts to ensure our institutions take these threats seriously and uphold the values of safety, religious freedom, and respect.

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to Barbara on this well-deserved recognition. Her example reminds us that strong voices and principled leadership make a real difference.

Sincerely,

CHAIRWOMAN LISA C. MCCLAIN MEMBER OF CONGRESS
HOUSE REPUBLICAN CONFERENCE CHAIRWOMAN

Dear Barbara,

It is with deep admiration and heartfelt appreciation that we honor your extraordinary dedication and unwavering commitment to Israel and to the mission of FIDF. Your generosity has made a meaningful and lasting impact on the lives of countless soldiers and their families.

You and your beloved husband, Jeffrey ל"ט, were devoted supporters of FIDF. While Jeffrey's passing was a profound loss, his legacy lives on through your continued leadership and steadfast devotion to the causes you both cherished. Your service on the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum Board and your enduring support of Israel reflect a lifetime of principled commitment.

Through your partnership with FIDF, you have helped dedicate the Amirim Synagogue at the Mishmar HaNegev Base in 2019, served as 2019 Boca Gala Honorees, adopted the Eshet 9 Battalion since 2020, and generously supported two IMPACT! Scholarship recipients. Each of these acts reflects not only generosity, but deep personal care for the soldiers who defend the State of Israel.

On behalf of FIDF, it is our honor to recognize you in the ZOA Journal and to express our deepest gratitude for your remarkable contributions and enduring legacy. Your dedication does not go unnoticed, and we are profoundly grateful for your continued partnership and friendship.

With appreciation,

It is an honor to recognize Barbara Feingold for her distinguished leadership and lifelong dedication to Judaism, the State of Israel, and the mission of the Republican Jewish Coalition.

Barbara serves as Florida Chair of the Republican Jewish Coalition and as a member of the RJC National Board, where she has played a key role in advancing Jewish civic and political engagement at both the state and national levels. In recognition of her leadership and service, she was appointed by Donald J. Trump to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, including its Board of Trustees.

Guided by deep Jewish values and a steadfast commitment to Israel's security and future, Barbara's accomplishments reflect integrity, conviction, and lasting impact.

With sincere appreciation and respect,

NORM COLEMAN
NATIONAL CHAIRMAN

MATTHEW BROOKS
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Dear Barbara,

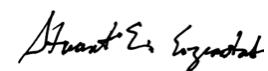

We were pleased to learn that you are receiving the Zionist Organization of America's prestigious Justice Louis D. Brandeis Extraordinary Defender of Israel Award.

Brandeis was such a historic figure – not only America's first Jewish Supreme Court Justice but also a pivotal figure in the early American Zionist movement. At a time when few did, he understood the importance of a Jewish homeland. As Nazism was taking hold, he recognized the danger and fought for Jewish immigration to Palestine when Britain had closed its doors to Europe's desperate Jews.

You and your late husband Jeffrey have long been staunch advocates for Holocaust education, confronting antisemitism, and ensuring the future of Israel so that, unlike during the Holocaust, Jews anywhere can have a secure home.

Congratulations on this distinguished honor– especially in the year we commemorate America 250. May you go from strength to strength.

Best regards,

The RESILIENCE book and exhibit depicts the stories of Holocaust survivors that Cheryl grew up around. Her childhood was unique, surrounded by parents, relatives and friends whose powerful stories of unwavering resilience and hope shaped her desire to share stories inspired by survivors in extreme circumstances.

Cheryl realized that many young people are unaware of such narratives. Sharing stories of young Holocaust survivors' childhood resilience resonated deeply with them. RESILIENCE is a compilation work of 37 oil paintings and short stories of survivors' hopefulness in extreme adversity. The number 37 is based on two times chai/life (18) plus one to symbolize the next generation. McLean Fletcher, one of the world's emerging contemporary artists, graced these stories with her artistic interpretations. Although most survivors have passed it is the responsibility of all to continue telling the history so that THE HOLOCAUST WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN.

Tribute to Barbara Feingold

We are proud to honor Barbara Feingold, a remarkable leader, patriot, and tireless advocate for Israel, the Jewish people, and the enduring principles that define both the United States and the State of Israel.

Through decades of dedication, Barbara has demonstrated that strong faith, strong values, and strong nations are inseparable. Barbara has been a steadfast supporter of the U.S.–Israel alliance and a powerful voice against antisemitism.

Through her work with the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum, the Republican Jewish Coalition, and numerous philanthropic and civic efforts, she has helped ensure that the lessons of history are preserved and that the Jewish people always have champions willing to stand up for truth and justice.

Equally important has been Barbara's commitment to the ideals of American strength, freedom, and national sovereignty.

She has long supported policies and leaders who believe in a strong America that protects its values, supports its allies, and stands firmly for liberty at home and abroad. Her belief that a confident, principled America is essential to the security of Israel and the stability of the world reflects a deep understanding of both nations' shared foundations.
